Due to large geographic separation of participating alcoholics, this years Whippet is very untraditionally being organised early. The proposed date for immoderate alcohol consumption (compulsory) is the 20th of December 1995. If any of last years enlarged liver holders can't make that date due to prior commitments please advise, if they can't make due to being enormous wossey's don't bother. Please pass on to any relevant self indulgent extreme hedonists who are not on distribution list. Please RSVP so we can make vomit express arrangements, price to hurled around by Stormbringer dependant on numbers.
